

Good Morning Limetree Yellow!

I hope you are enjoying the learning activities we have set for you. Thank you to everyone who has sent in photos of their fantastic learning - we have seen some amazing drawings of tigers and story-maps. We can see you are really taking your time and persisting with learning, just like Percy

The weather has been beautiful over the last few days. Have you been enjoying the sunshine? Today is Tuesday: we would normally be taking a seasonal walk around Golders Hill park and then doing a P.E session with Coach Alex. I wonder if the daffodils are still blooming. Have you seen any signs on spring on your daily walks, in the garden or outside your window?

Today you will be reading the story - 'Where the Wild Things Are' by Maurice Sendak. This is one of my favourite stories and I love the illustrations of the Wild Things. I wonder which Wild Thing is going to be your favourite. We hope you have lots of fun today - reading, making dens and gooey slime!

We look forward to seeing photos of your learning, particularly of your dens!

Love from,

Miss Cassidy, Ta'Shara, Amisha, Nicole, Shirley & Gerald
