Good Morning Limetree Yellow!

I hope you've had a wonderful weekend. I miss hearing your weekend news. I wonder what you've been up to this weekend. What was your favourite activity? Did you eat any special treats?

I hope you had fun on Friday with all the activities. Did you learn the actions for 'Incy Wincy Spider' and 'What do you Suppose?' can you remember the rhymes now?

Today you are going to be reading the story 'Superworm' by Julia Donaldson. It's a fantastic action packed story. You will be imagining you want to become a superhero too. I wonder what your superpowers will be! You will also be doing some measuring today. I know we love measuring in Limetree Yellow - do you remember when we weighed the Christmas parcels? Or when we measured the height of the dinosaurs and our friends?

Have a great day everyone!

Love from,
Miss Cassidy
