Good Morning Rosewood,

This morning we are going to be very busy looking at the story 'The Singing Mermaid'. Julia Donaldson is the Author of this book. Can you remember what an Author is? Well done if you can! If not, don't worry! I'll remind you now. An Author is the person who writes all the words inside a book.

This story is all about a mermaid who wants to be famous and sing to everyone!

That sounds very familiar to me. A bit like another story I know. Can you think of another mermaid who likes to sing? I'll give you a clue! She's a princess!!!

That's right! The princess I was thinking of is Ariel!

Have a lovely day!

Love from

Miss McDade
