

Tuesday 19th May 2020

Dear Elm,

How are you?

Yesterday we learnt all about The Jungle. Did you learn anything new? What animals can you find in the jungle? Which one do you like best? My favourite Jungle animal is a leopard!

Today we will be focusing on Pie Corbett's- The Parcel.

(Pie Corbett is a children's author and one time head teacher who's a key figure in English schools. He is the foundation of English teaching in many UK primary schools. Pie is also well known for his stories and poems. Some of which are available here:

panmacmillan.com/authors/pie-corbett).

Activities for you to explore today are:

- Making predictions
- Musical corners
- Bubble painting
- Roleplay

Please don't forget to send in pictures your work which will be added to the online gallery.

Wishing you a good day ahead,

Lots of love,

Miss Dixon.