Good morning Limetree Green.

I am super excited because our story today is one of my absolute favourites. It's called On the way Home by Jill Murphy.

It's an amazing journey of adventure for a girl called Claire.

Here is the blurb.

Claire has hurt her knee so she sets off home to tell her mum all about it. On the way she meets her friends and tells them how the fall happened. But just how did it happen . . .? Was she dropped by a wolf, a slithering snake, an enormous dragon or a hairy gorilla?!

Are you curious children?

Listen to the story and find out more!

Here are today's activities:

On the way Home drawing- Draw a picture of your favourite encounter that Claire had.

Going to the Hospital- Develop your creativity and act out a scenario of a doctor/hospital scene and consider how doctors and nurses help us.

"And that's how I got my poorly knee!" -It's your turn to expand your imagination and tell your own fantastic tale of your journey home.

Have a great day!

Take good care

Love from Miss Loftman.
