Good Morning Limetree Yellow ☺

I hope you're all ready for a wonderful day of learning. Today you're going to read 'The Girl, the Bear and the Magic Shoes' by Julia Donaldson. Would you like to read the blurb? (Remember that's the writing on the back of the book, which tells us a little bit about the story). Here it is:

When Josephine leaves the shoe shop after buying some new running shoes, she hears an unusual sound - Click-click! Click-click! A bear with a backpack is following her! Luckily for Josephine, her new shoes are anything but ordinary - these are magic shoes. But can they help her escape the bear when there's a mountain, a bog and even a lake in her way?

It sounds like a very exciting story, doesn't it? After reading the story you're going to play a matching game with shoes. You'll also be thinking about which shoes we wear in different climates, as well as being creative and designing your own pair of magic shoes!

I know that lots of you love shoes in Limetree Yellow (particularly sparkly ones!), so I think you're going to love today's activities.

It has made me so happy and proud to see photographs of you carrying out home learning in your homes - keep up the fantastic learning everyone (and keep sending in your photos!).

Love from,
Miss Cassidy
