Good Morning Limetree Yellow!

How are you this morning? Remember The Colour Monster? (The story is on our Youtube channel.) I wonder which colour you're feeling this morning. I'm feeling yellow for happiness!

Are you enjoying reading stories by the same author - Rachel Bright? I love the stories she writes because they're often about animals and they have really encouraging messages. Today we have another wonderful story from her collection: The Lion Inside. This is a story about being brave. I wonder if you can roar like a lion.

Today you will think about a time that you felt afraid, but you overcame a fear. Thinking about lions, you will have the opportunity to make your own lion face pizza! Doesn't that sound fun? And you'll record a blurb for the story. You can also follow instruction to make a mouse finger puppet, just like the mouse in the story.

Have a wonderful day!

Love from,

Miss Cassidy
