Good Morning Rosewood,

I hope you had a great night's sleep and are ready for all the fun activities we have planned.

Today we will be looking at the story 'Zog and the Flying Doctors' which is all about a Princess called Pearl, a Knight called Sir Gadabout and their flying ambulance - a dragon called Zog. There is much to do, as they fly around tending to a sunburnt mermaid, a distressed unicorn and a sneezy lion!

This story is the first in what will now be our new theme 'People who Help us'. In this story we think about 'Doctors' helping us! Can you think of any other 'people who help us' other than doctors?

Have a fantastic day!

Love from

Miss McDade
