Good Morning Rosewood,

Today we are going to read a story about a girl called Claire who has hurt her knee and so, sets off home to tell her mum all about it. On the way she meets her friends and tells them how the fall happened. But just how did it happen...? Was she dropped by a wolf, a slithering snake, an enormous dragon or a hairy gorilla?!

You will have to listen to the story very carefully to find out! How do you think Claire hurt her knee?

Below are a list of the activities we have planned for you today...

- On the Way Home Drawing: Draw a picture of your favourite encounter that Claire had.
- Going to the Hospital: Act out a scenario of a doctor/hospital scene and consider how doctors and nurses help us.
- "And that's how I got my poorly knee!": Tell your own fantastic tale of an imaginary journey home.

Have a great day!

Love from
