Good Morning Rosewood,

Today we are going to be looking at the story Percy the Park Keeper: After the Storm by Nick Butterworth. Below I have given you a little task! Can you predict (guess) what happens next in the story?

A storm is raging outside and Percy the park keeper is having a sleepless night. When he gets up the following morning, Percy finds that the old oak tree has been blown down. What do you think might happen next?

The activities we have planned for today are listed below...

- A New Home for Animals: Read today's focus story and then use a range of materials to build a new home for animals.
- Hungry Rabbit Subtraction: Count how many carrots are left in each patch, after Hungry Rabbit has eaten from them
- Make Your Own Kind of Music: Create storm sounds and music of your choice, as well as making marks in response to music.

I really hope you're enjoying some of the beautiful weather we are having!

Have a great day!

Love from

Miss McDade
